

LAW
OF THE REPUBLIC OF ARMENIA

Adopted by the National Assembly on 27 December 1997

ON STATE DUTY

CHAPTER 1

General provisions

Article 1. Subject matter of the Law

This Law shall define:

- the concept of state duty in the Republic of Armenia;
- types of duties and rates;
- the duty payers;
- the procedure for and conditions of levy and reimbursement of duty, granting of privileges, and shall regulate other relations pertaining to the state duty.

Article 2. Concept of state duty

In the Republic of Armenia, state duty is a mandatory payment prescribed by law paid to the State and/or community budgets of the Republic of Armenia by natural and legal persons for services or actions prescribed by this Law as in relation to the execution of powers of state bodies.

(Article 2 amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000)

CHAPTER 2

STATE DUTY PAYERS, THEIR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 3. State duty payers

In the Republic of Armenia, natural and legal persons making use of the services or actions provided for in Article 7 of this Law shall be considered state duty payers (hereinafter referred to as “state duty payers”).

(Article 3 amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000)

Article 4. Rights of state duty payers

State duty payers shall have the right to:

- request the body responsible for charging the state duty to make a calculation of the duty and also a re-calculation, if necessary;
- appeal against actions of the body or officials responsible for charging state duty by way of superiority, as well as through judicial procedure;
- apply to respective state bodies to be granted privileges for payment of the state duty;
- receive a statement of information on the payment of the state duty;
- in cases provided for in this Law, request and receive the amount of the state duty subject to reimbursement.

Article 5. Obligations of state duty payers

State duty payers shall be obliged to:

- make a timely and full payment of state duties prescribed by this Law;
- submit documents substantiating the payment of the state duty to bodies or officials providing services and actions upon payment of state duty, except for the cases when the state duty is paid for granting a license or its copy, extending the validity of the licence, converting the licence, performing the same activity subject to licensing in another location as well;
- submit documents attesting the privileges reserved to them in relation to the payment of the state duty;
- in cases provided for by this Law, pay to the State Budget the amounts of penalty calculated for the failure to pay the state duty in time.

(Article 5 amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, supplemented by HO-49-N of 29 April 2013)

Article 6. Termination of liability with regard to state duty

Liability of legal persons for the payment of the state duty shall terminate by the fulfilment of this obligation, by exemption from the payment of the state duty, by abolition of the state duty or on other grounds provided for by law; and for natural persons — by the fulfilment of the obligation, by exemption from the payment of the state duty, by abolition of the state duty or in case of death of the state duty payer.

(2nd sentence deleted by HO-11-N of 15 December 2005)

(Article 6 amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, supplemented by HO-283 of 14 December 2001, amended by HO-11-N of 15 December 2005)

Article 6¹. Termination of liability for the payment of annual state duty

1. Notwithstanding of the provisions referred to in Article 6 of this Law, the liability of natural persons and undertakings for the payment of the regular annual state duty shall terminate:

(1) by the fulfilment of this liability through payment of the amounts of regular annual state duty by the rates and within the time limits prescribed by this Law (the amount of the state duty shall be considered paid from the day when accrued to the respective account of the State Budget of the Republic of Armenia), as well as through payment of the amount of penalties prescribed by this Law for their late payment, by exemption from the payment of the annual state duty, by abolition of the annual state duty by law, as well as in case of the death of the natural person;

(2) in case of termination of validity (revocation) of documents (rights, permissions, authorisations, licences, qualification certificates) issued as a result of delivery of services or performance of actions being the object chargeable with the annual state duty by the authorised body in the manner prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia prior to the last day of the time limit prescribed by this Law for the payment of the regular annual state duty;

(3) where the annual state duty payer, prior to the last day of the time limit prescribed by this Law for the payment of the regular annual state duty, files an application with the authorised body on the termination of validity (revocation) of documents (rights, permissions, authorisations, licences, qualification certificates) issued as a result of delivery of services or performance of actions being an object chargeable with the annual state duty by the authorised body and in case of further granting of this application.

Where the annual state duty payer files the application with the authorised body on the termination of validity (revocation) of a right, permission, authorisation, licence or qualification certificate after the last day of the time limit prescribed by this Law for the payment of the regular annual state duty, in case the application is granted, only a penalty shall be calculated started from the last day of the time limit prescribed by this Law for the payment of the regular annual state duty (where a later date is specified in the application — from that day) up to the day of filing the application for the termination of (revocation) of an action. Where a date earlier than the day of filing the application is specified in the application the penalty shall be calculated up to the day of filing the application for the termination of validity (revocation) of a right, permission, authorisation, licence or qualification certificate.

(4) as regards the regular annual state duty as from the day of entry into force of the respective law, in case the type of activity subject to authorisation, permission, licensing or qualification is not considered the subject to authorisation, permission, licensing or qualification.

2. In case of suspension of an authorisation, permission, licence or qualification certificate in the manner prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia (except for cases of revocation of an authorisation, permission, licence or qualification certificate as prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia upon an application within the period of suspension) the amounts of the regular annual state duty shall be subject to payment notwithstanding of the grounds and time limits of suspension of an authorisation, permission, licence or qualification certificate.

(Article 6¹ supplemented by HO-11-N of 15 December 2005, supplemented, amended by HO-14-N of 26 February 2013)

18.14, to issue a licence for carrying out the same type of fifty percent activities subject to licensing in every additional place — of the state annually duty rate defined for issuing the given type of licence.

Where pursuant to the Law of the Republic of Armenia “On Licensing”, a licensee shall be obliged to carry out the activities subject to licensing only in the place stated in the licence, in case of simultaneous filing of applications for obtaining licences to perform the same activity subject to licensing in an additional place, the applicant may, on his or her own, choose the licence, wherefore the annual state duties defined by this Law are to be charged (paid) by the rates established by points 1 to 19 of this Article. In case the applicant fails to determine on his or her own and (or) inform the licensing authority, the latter shall determine upon its discretion which of the licences for carrying out the same activity shall be subject to charging (payment) of the annual state duty defined by this Law by the rates established by points 1 to 19 of this Article.

Except for the licence granted based on the state duty paid at the rates defined by points 1 to 19 of this Article the annual state duties for granting a licence for an additional place shall be charged (paid) at the rates defined by point 25 of this Article unless otherwise prescribed by point 25.

Where the licensee has obtained a licence (licences) by paying the annual state duty pursuant to Article 19(25) of this Law, the duty paid pursuant to Article 19(25) of this Law shall, from the date when the licence obtained upon the ground of a state duty paid as prescribed by other points of Article 19 of this Law, is declared as invalid or is deemed as suspended by failure to pay the regular annual state duty prescribed within the specified time limit, be subject to surplus payment for any of these licences within a period of three days in the amount of fifty percent of the rate of the state duty as prescribed by other points of Article 19 for the issue of a licence to carry out the given activity. In case of failure to make the surplus payment within a period of three days, the licence (licences) issued on the ground of an annual state duty paid pursuant to Article 19(25) of this Law shall be deemed as suspended from the day following the three-day period.

In case of renewal for a full year of an authorisation, permission or licence deemed as an object to be charged with an annual state duty by the authorised body, the annual state duty prescribed for the issue thereof shall continue to be paid by the general procedure for charging and paying annual state duty as prescribed by this Law.

In case of renewal of a licence, authorisation or permission solely for an incomplete year as prescribed by legislation, the annual state duty established by law to be charged by the body responsible for charging a state duty shall be proportionally calculated and charged based on the number of months of the incomplete year of the renewed time limit of the licence (the time limit of a licence, authorisation or permission may, as prescribed by the legislation, be renewed for an incomplete year exclusively for months).

CHAPTER VI

THE PROCEDURE FOR CALCULATING, PAYING AND REFUNDING STATE DUTY AND THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE OFFICIALS FOR THEIR MAINTENANCE

Article 32. Charging of state duty

State duty shall be charged before the provision of the relevant service or the performance of the operation unless other procedure is defined by this Law or some privileges are provided for the payer in relation to state duty. Where a state duty is envisaged to be charged for issue of a licence or its copy, renewal of the licence, its conversion or for carrying out the same activity subject to licensing in a different place, provision of relevant service or performance of an operation shall be deemed to be the process of sending or handing over to the applicant, in a due manner, the licence, its copy, the renewed licence, the converted licence, licence for carrying out of the same activity subject to licensing in a different place, as well as relevant decisions thereon.

The moment of the performance of operations and provision of the services for the purposes of calculating and charging state duty shall be considered the moment of their completion.

In case of the exit of natural persons from the territory of the Republic of Armenia by means of air transport the moment of the provision of services shall be considered the moment of the flight.

In case of simultaneous performance of several operations or provision of several services, for which state duty is charged, the state duty shall be calculated separately for each operation or service and shall be transferred to the relevant bank account. The original of the document attesting the payment of state duty and a notification of the type of state duty, the payer's name, the bank account number and the date of the payment attached to it together with the files attesting the performance of operations and provision of services shall be kept at the body responsible for charging state duty, unless otherwise is provided for by the Government of the Republic of Armenia. Bodies performing relevant operations or providing relevant services shall pay state duty (also in cash) to the bank (transfer to the budget) for the operations performed and the services provided by the diplomatic service agencies of the Republic of Armenia operating in foreign states within the first two banking days of the month following the performance of the relevant operations and the provision of the relevant services.

The types of state duty, which may be implemented in cash by the body or the official responsible for charging state duty shall be defined by the authorised body of the Government of the Republic of Armenia and be agreed with the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia. In such cases bodies performing relevant operations or providing relevant services shall pay state duty (also in cash) to the bank (transfer to the budget) within two banking days following the performance of the relevant operations and the provision of the relevant services, with the exception of cases of the exit of natural persons from the territory of the Republic of Armenia by means of air transport where, upon the decision of the Republic of Armenia, the power of charging the state duty has been delegated to the organisations where state duty is transferred to the state budget in the manner prescribed by the Government. In such cases the air carriers of the Republic of Armenia and the representatives of foreign air carriers registered in the Republic of Armenia shall transfer the sums of state duty included in the price of the passenger transportation ticket to the state budget not later than within 10 banking days following the day of the actual flight, while in case of non-regular air transportations, as well as air transportations carried out by foreign organisations not having representatives in the Republic of Armenia, airports and exploiter organisations shall calculate and transfer the sums of state duty to the state budget within 10 banking days following the day of the actual flight, irrespective of remittances from the organisations carrying out air transportations.

In certain cases the power of charging state duty may be delegated to enterprises, organisations upon the decision of the Government of the Republic of Armenia in the manner prescribed by the legislation. In such cases certain enterprises, organisations may establish payments for the compensation of the expenses relating to their performance (with the exception of the cases of air transportation tickets sale and entrusting the power of charging state duty to organisations carrying out air transportations) the amount of which shall be agreed with the Government of the Republic of Armenia.

One fourth of the annual amount of the state duty defined by points 14.3.1 to 14.3.5 of Section 14 of Article 19 of the Law is paid quarterly to the state budget until 25th of the month preceding the beginning of the quarter, except for the first state duty charged for granting a licence, the payment relations of which are regulated in the manner and terms defined by the Law of the Republic of Armenia "On licensing" in the following amounts: the product of one twelfth of the annual amount of the state duty set forth by points 14.3.1 to 14.3.5 of Section 14 of Article 19 of the Law and the number of months, along with incomplete months, included in the period extending between the month the licence was granted and the last month of the given quarter.

(Article 32 supplemented by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, supplemented by HO-49-N of 25 December 2006, HO-241-N of 26 December 2008, amended by HO-85-N of 20 May 2010, supplemented by HO-203-N of 8 December 2010, HO-232-N of 6 December 2012, HO-49-N of 29 April 2013, edited by HO-133-N of 23 December 2013)

Article 33. The peculiarities of charging state duty for inventions, utility models, industrial designs, trademarks, geographical indications, designations of origin and traditional speciality guaranteed, trade names, activities of legal significance relating to the legal protection of topographies of integral circuits

(title amended by HO-14 of 26 October 1999, HO-123 of 13 December 2000, HO-62-N of 29 April 2010)

In case of dividing the application for an object of industrial property, topographies of integral circuits into several separate applications, state duties for each divided application shall be paid in the same way as for a separate application.

If the sum of the state duty paid for any operation provided for by Article 18 of this Law does not conform to the defined amount, the underpaid state duty shall be subject to payment within a two-month period following the receipt of the notification thereof.

State duties for granting a patent on inventions, utility models, registering and granting a certificate for industrial designs, trademarks, registering and/or granting a certificate for the use of geographical indications and designations of origin, registering traditional speciality guaranteed shall be paid within a three-month period following the receipt of the decision of the authorised public administration body. The duties may also be paid within six months after the completion of that period. In this case, the amount of the duties shall be increased by fifty percent.

Annually paid state duties in relation to legal protection of inventions, utility models shall be paid for the whole year of the patent validity. The first payment of annually paid state duty shall be made before the beginning of the second year of the patent validity or together with the state duty for granting a patent. State duties for extension of the period for protection of the industrial design rights shall be paid every five years, calculated from the date of filing the application. Moreover, state duty for the first five years shall be paid together with the state duty for granting a certificate for an industrial design. State duty for the following five years shall be paid during the year preceding it.

The state duties defined by Article 18(1)(e) and Article 18(2)(e) of this Law shall be subject to payment together with the defined state duty.

If the state duty for granting a patent or a certificate has been paid by the rate increased by fifty percent within six months after the completion of the defined period, the rate of other state duties subject to payment shall remain unchanged.

State duties for each following year of a patent validity shall be paid during the current year of a patent validity. State duty for the following five years of validity of the industrial design rights shall be paid during the fifth year of the current validity of those rights. State duties may also be paid within six months after the completion of that period. In this case, the amounts of duties shall be increased by fifty percent.

State duty for renewal of the period of validity of the registered trademark, as well as the period of validity of the certificate of the right to use the geographical indications or the designation of origin shall be paid during the tenth year of their validity. State duty may also be paid within six months after the completion of that period. In this case, the amount of the duty shall be increased by fifty percent.

(part repealed by HO-113-N of 10 June 2008)

The document attesting the payment of the state duty within the periods defined by the second, third, fourth, sixth and seventh parts of this Article shall be submitted to the body responsible for charging state duty not later than within ten days after the completion of that period. In case of a failure of submitting the document attesting the payment within the mentioned terms, the state duty shall be considered unpaid and the relevant operation shall not be performed or the service shall not be provided.

(Article 33 supplemented, amended by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, amended by HO-14 of 26 October 1999, amended, edited by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, amended, supplemented, edited by HO-113-N of 10 June 2008, amended by HO-62-N of 29 April 2010)

Article 34. Responsibility for the accurate calculation and in time charging of state duty

State duty shall be calculated and charged by the officials delivering relevant services or performing relevant operations prescribed by this Law.

The responsibility for the accurate calculation and timely charging of state duty shall be vested in the officials delivering relevant services or performing relevant operations, while in case of the sums charged (received) in cash, the responsibility of timely transfer of those sums to the budget shall be vested in the responsible official of the body responsible for charging state duty.

The payment of the regular annual state duty for each coming year defined by this Law shall be made before the beginning of the coming year, not later than the date of the issue of the documents (of rights, permissions, authorisations (patents), licences, qualification certificates) specified on such documents (of rights, permissions, authorisations (patents), licences, qualification certificates) as a result of provision of services or performance of operations, which are object of annual state duty to be charged by the authorised body.

In case of a withdrawal of the decisions of the authorised bodies on suspension, termination of the authorisation, permission, licence or qualification certificate for the activity (except for the cases of non-payment of annual state duty) by way of superiority or through judicial procedure, the time limit for paying annual state duty defined by this part shall be suspended for a period extending between the adoption of the decision on suspension, termination of the authorisation, permission, licence or qualification certificate for the activity and the entry into force of the act on withdrawal of that decision.

In case if the power to charge state duty is delegated to the organisations in the manner prescribed by Article 32 of this Law and if the sum of state duty not paid by them exceeds five million Armenian drams within the period prescribed by this Law, the head of the authorised body of the Government of the Republic of Armenia exercising supervision over the procedure of calculation and charging of state duty shall impose attachment on bank accounts of organisations thus ensuring the fulfilment of the liabilities in relation to state duty. Moreover, the head of the authorised body of the Republic of Armenia shall have no right to renounce that attachment until the liabilities in relation to the state duty are fully fulfilled.

(Article 34 supplemented by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, amended, supplemented by HO-283 of 14 December 2001, edited, supplemented by HO-11-N of 15 December 2005, supplemented by HO-241-N of 26 December 2008, supplemented, amended by HO-14-N of 26 February 2013)

Article 35. Responsibility for delaying charging of state duty

As a result of a failure of the officials responsible for charging state duty to fulfil adequately the liabilities imposed on them within the defined time limits, the sums of state duty not transferred to the budget are to be charged from them to the state budget together with a fine calculated by 0.5% for each overdue day.

The officials responsible for charging state duty shall pay to the budget the sums of the state duty not charged to the budget, as well as the fines calculated in compliance with the first part of this Article within a ten-day period from the submission of the relevant act by the authorised body.

The payment of state duty within the defined time limits by the payer having privileges in relation to renewal of the time limit for state duty payment in the manner prescribed by this Law, as well as the sums of the state duty not paid to the budget within the time limits prescribed by this Law for the payment of state duties, are to be charged from the payer to the state budget together with a penalty calculated by 0,5 % for each overdue day.

Charging of amounts of the state duty not paid or charged, as well as charging of fines set forth in this Law for failure to pay or charge them is performed in the manner prescribed by Article 13 of the Law of the Republic of Armenia "On fundamentals of administrative action and administrative proceedings".

In case of a failure of mentioning the purpose of the payment (the number and liability period of the licence, permission, authorisation (patent) or qualification certificate) in the documents attesting the payment of annual state duty or submitting a written statement to the authorised body about the purpose of the payment, priority is given to the redemption of the sums of regular annual state duty (by a chronological order prescribed for their payment) from/on the account of annual state duty paid by annual state duty payer and only after that to the liabilities in relation to the penalties of annual state duty prescribed by this Law. In case of a failure to submit a written statement or replace the purpose of the payment mentioned in the submitted statement with a new statement within the time limit mentioned in this Part, annual state duty liabilities shall not be subject to recalculation.

In case of termination of the validity of licences, authorisations (patents), permissions and qualification certificates earlier than the time limit specified for these by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia, fines for overdue days shall not be calculated for the failure to make the payment within the time limits prescribed by this Law for the payment of the regular annual state duty not having been paid earlier, starting from the day of termination, in case of termination of the licence, authorisation (patent), permission or qualification certificate upon the application — from the day of submission of the application (in case a later date for termination is specified in the application — from that day, and in case a time limit earlier than the date of submission of application is specified in the application — from the day of submission of the application), where the application is granted later, and in the case provided for by point 4 of the first part of Article 6¹ of this Law.

(Article 35 supplemented by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, amended by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, supplemented by HO-11-N of 15 December 2005, amended by HO-186-N of 8 December 2010, supplemented, amended by HO-14-N of 26 February 2013, amended by HO-145-N of 5 December 2013)

Article 36. Payment of state duty

State duty shall be paid in the Republic of Armenia in Armenian dram. .

The Government of the Republic of Armenia may define and put into mandatory use model forms for bank payment documents (receipts), by assenting them with the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia.

State duties for services or operations being performed outside the territory of the Republic of Armenia, as well as for giving an entry visa into the Republic of Armenia in the crossing points of the state border of the Republic of Armenia may be paid in foreign currency.

When charging state duties for services or operations being performed outside the territory of the Republic of Armenia in foreign currency, the annual average exchange rate (published by the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia) established in currency markets during the preceding year shall be taken as a basis.

When calculating the rate of state duty in foreign currency, the rate shall be rounded off to get a complete number in the given foreign currency. The rate below 0,5 shall be rounded off by means of decreasing while the rate above 0,5 shall be rounded off by means of increasing.

(Article 36 supplemented by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, edited, supplemented by HO-49-N of 25 December 2006, amended by HO-151-N of 9 April 2007, supplemented by HO-203-N of 8 December 2010)

Article 36.1. Registration of state duty liabilities

1. Personal account cards shall be opened at the tax authority for the registration of state duty liabilities (duty, penalty). The superior tax service authority shall define the form of the personal registration card and the procedure to process it.

2. State duty liabilities and their redemption (payment, offset), as well as the amounts paid in excess of state duty liabilities shall be registered in drams (less lumas). In case of liquidation of a payer, the general state duty obligations and overpayments up to one hundred Armenian drams shall be ignored.

3. State duty liabilities shall be registered on the payment time limit prescribed by law (i.e., on the date prescribed by law for the payment of the relevant state duty liability).

4. When applying chronological order of the payments or offsets actually transferred to the state budget of the Republic of Armenia by the payer, if the latter has not mentioned the period and liability redemption to which it refers (it is not appropriate), priority is given to the redemption of existing state duty liabilities in the following order: the sums of duty, penalties.

(Article 36.1 supplemented by HO-186-N of 8 December 2010)

Article 37. Supervision over the maintenance of the procedure for calculating and charging state duty

Supervision over the maintenance of the procedure for calculating and charging state duty shall be exercised by the authorised bodies of the Government of the Republic of Armenia.

Article 38. The procedure for refunding state duty

State duty shall be subject to full or partial refund:

(a) if state duty has been paid in an amount excessive to what has been requested by the legislation in force;

(b) if the applications (appeals) have been returned or their adoption is rejected by the court, as well as in case if the notary public has rejected to conduct notarial actions, or if the state registration authorities have rejected the registration of civil status acts, and the performance of other operations and provision of services have been rejected, except for the cases envisaged by part 3 of this Article;

(c) in case of termination of case proceedings or non-consideration of the lawsuit, if the case is not subject to examination in court or if the plaintiff has not maintained the prescribed extra judicial procedure for dissolving the dispute for the given category case or the lawsuit has been filed by a person having no legal capacity;

(d) if the supposed price for the lawsuit (from which the court has charged state duty) has been adjusted during the case examination as a result of which the total price for the lawsuit has been reduced;

(e) in case of satisfying a lawsuit about releasing property from under attachment;

(f) in case of rejecting the performance of this or that operation by the state body responsible for charging state duty, unless otherwise stipulated by law;

(g) in case of a refusal to provide relevant services or perform relevant operations by a state duty payer before the completion of performance of relevant operations or provision of relevant services, except for the cases when the body responsible for charging state duty has already initiated in the prescribed manner the performance of the relevant operation or the provision of the relevant service having a continuous nature;

(h) state duty paid for the registration of divorce corr. upon mutual agreement of spouses not having minors, if the registration has not been conducted because the spouses have reconciled or one of them has failed to appear;

(i) in case of a withdrawal of the acts of civil status or notarised contracts, certificates for the right of inheritance and other documents through judicial procedure;

(j) state duty paid for filing an appeal before the Board of Appeal, where the Board of Appeal or the Court withdraws the decision adopted on the basis of the examination of the applications for the registration of industrial property objects;

(k) state duties paid by the citizens for receiving the exit documents for departure from the Republic of Armenia, in case of refusing to leave for foreign countries before getting the permission.

The sums of the state duty subject to refunding and provided for by Article 18 of this Law may, in the manner prescribed by the body responsible for charging state duty, be used by the same body for the performance of other operation or provision of other service, where the sums of the state duty subject to refunding are paid to the account to which the sums of the state duty defined for the performance of the given operation or provision of the given service shall be paid.

Where the Court of Cassation returns the cassation appeal lodged against the final part of the judicial act on the grounds of Article 233(1)(1) of the Civil Procedure Code of the Republic of Armenia or rejects to accept the cassation appeal for the proceedings on the grounds of Article 162(1)(2) of the Civil Procedure Code of the Republic of Armenia the state duty, but in the amount not exceeding twenty thousand Armenian drams, shall not be returned.

(Article 38 amended by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, edited, supplemented by HO-123 of 13 December 2000, supplemented by HO-358-N of 29 May 2002, edited by HO-375-N of 12 June 2002, HO-255-N of 5 December 2006, edited, supplemented by HO-130-N of 11 December 2013)

Article 39. The procedure for refunding state duty

Financial institutions shall refund state duty from the budget to which the sum has been transferred not later, than within thirty days from the receipt of the documents prescribed by this Law, except for the sums of duty paid for the exit of natural persons by air transport means. State duty paid for the exit of natural persons by air transport means shall be refunded to natural persons in the manner prescribed by the Government of the Republic of Armenia.

State duty shall be refunded upon the application of the payer, if it has been submitted to a financial institution not later, than within three years from the creation of the right of refunding state duty or a part of it.

State duty charged for the services provided and operation performed outside the territory of the Republic of Armenia shall be refunded by the body responsible for charging state duty during the current month from the sums, which have not yet been transferred to the state budget. In this case, an act shall be drawn and attached to the payer's application, a standard form of which and the procedure for the documentation of refunding state duty shall be defined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Armenia.

Filing an application for refunding state duty or a part of it to a financial institution shall suspend the above-mentioned time limit.

The statements of information of the court and other institutions charging state duty on the reasons of refunding state duty fully or partially, as well as the documents attesting the payment of state duty shall be attached to the application on refunding state duty.

(Article 39 amended by HO-277 of 28 December 1998, supplemented by HO-241-N of 26 December 2008, HO-203-N of 8 December 2010)

Article 40. The currency of refunding state duty

State duty shall be refunded in Armenian dram, and in the cases prescribed by the second part of Article 36 of this Law — also in foreign currency.

Article 41. The procedure for filing a complaint against officials providing relevant services or performing relevant operations

A complaint may be filed against the actions of the officials providing relevant services or performing relevant operations while charging state duty before the body to which these persons are immediately subordinate, or before the court.

By way of superiority complaints shall be examined and decisions on them shall be made not later than within a five-day period following the receipt of the appeal.

Article 42. Departmental regulatory acts concerning the application of this Law

Departmental regulatory acts concerning the application of this Law shall be adopted by the authorised body of the Government of the Republic of Armenia.

CHAPTER 7

Transitional provisions

Article 43. Entry into force of the Law

This Law shall enter into force from the moment of its promulgation.

Upon the entry into force of this Law, the Law of the Republic of Armenia of 19 July 1996 'On state duty' with its subsequent amendments and supplements shall be repealed.

The amount of the regular annual state duty for the activities prescribed by points 14.2 and 14.3 of section 14 of this Law subject to payment during 2013 with regard to activities performed for the period before 1 January 2014 is defined by the product of the one twelfth of the amount of the annual state duty set forth by points 14.2 and 14.3 of section 14 of this Law and the number of months, along with incomplete months, included in the period extending between the month the regular state duty was paid during 2013 and 1 January 2014.

(Article 43 supplemented by HO-169-N of 22 June 2012, amended by HO-232-N of 6 December 2012)

Article 44. Charging state duties subject to payment but not paid before the entry into force of this Law
