CHAPTER 6

FINANCING OF THE OFFICE AND PARTICIPATION FEES OF THE ORGANISATIONS

(title amended by HO-292-N of 03 June 2020)

Article 34. Financing of the Office

1. Financing of the Office shall be carried out by the Organisations by means of participation fees made in favour of the Office, which are debited to the special account served with this purpose in the Central Bank.
2. Participation fees shall be paid by the Organisations every quarter in equal portions by 20th day of the first month of the current quarter. The paid participation fees shall be considered as expenditure and shall not be subject to return.
3. Where the total sum of participation fees of the Organisations paid to the Office exceeds the approved budget, the Board may adopt a decision and return the excess amount to the Organisations, or spend it for the purpose of development of the Office, as well as for the education of customers, or direct it to replenishment of the Reserve Fund.
4. Where the participation fees paid by the Organisation are not sufficient for execution of the approved budget of the Office, the Organisations shall pay additional participation fees. The decision on paying additional participation fees shall be adopted by the Board. The Organisations shall pay additional participation fees in the amount proportional to their portion in the total sum of participation fees paid during the quarter preceding to adoption of the decision of the Board on paying additional participation fees.

The amount of the additional participation fees paid by the Organisations may not exceed the amount of annual participation fees established by this Law for the given Organisation.

5. Supervision over the payment of participation fees shall be carried out by the Central Bank.
6. The accuracy of the calculation of participation fees shall be checked by the Audit Commission or the Auditor.
7. The Central Bank shall be obliged to provide the Office with the information necessary for checking the accuracy of the participation fees paid by the Organisations.

(Article 34 amended by HO-292-N of 03 June 2020)

  - (9) Persons making money transfers — AMD 140.000;
  - (10) Credit Bureau — AMD 140.000.
2. The Organisations having received a new licence (except for those re-licensed) shall, within two-week time period following the receipt of the licence, be obliged to pay lump-sum participation fee for issuing the relevant licence, in half amount of the state duty established by Law.
  3. Where the Organisation is simultaneously engaged in two or more types of activities referred to part in part 1 of this Article, the Organisation shall be obliged to calculate the amount of participation fee for each of these activities and pay the biggest amount of the calculated participation fees.
  4. Suspension of the licence shall not exempt the organisation from the obligation of paying the participation fees provided for by this Chapter.
  5. Termination of the licence shall exempt the Organisation from the obligation of paying the participation fee provided for by this Chapter. Moreover, where the licence of the Organisation is terminated before 20th day of the first month of the current quarter, the Organisation shall not pay the due participation fee for that quarter. Where the licence is terminated after the 20th day of the first month of the current quarter, the obligation to pay the participation fee for that quarter shall not be terminated and the participation fees already paid for that quarter shall not be returned.

6. The authorised body of the Government of the Republic of Armenia in the sector of public financial management and the Board of the Central Bank shall jointly establish the procedure for collecting, calculating and writing off the participation fees established by this Article and the overdue obligations with regard to the interests provided for by part 2 of Article 36 of this Law.

(Article 35 amended by HO-169-N of 30 September 2008, supplemented by HO-276-N of 22 December 2010, HO-13-N of 21 December 2015, amended by HO-188-N of 25 March 2020, amended and supplemented by HO-292-N of 03 June 2020)

CHAPTER 7

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE ORGANISATION FOR VIOLATING THE PROVISIONS OF THIS LAW

Article 36. Responsibility of the organisation for violating the provisions of this Law

1. The Central Bank may impose fine on the Organisation for violating the requirements defined by Articles 7, 33 and 34 of this Law in the amount of up to hundred thousand drams.
2. In case of failure to fully or partially pay the participation fees established by Article 35 of this Law, interests shall be accrued on the underpaid amount of participation fee in the amount of threefold of the bank interest settlement rate as of the last day of the time period established for payment of participation fee.
3. The calculation of the interests provided for by part 2 of this Article shall be terminated from the day of termination of the licence of the Organisation.

(Article 36 amended and supplemented by HO-292-N of 03 June 2020)

CHAPTER 8

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Article 37. The claims examined by the Financial System Mediator

1. The Financial System Mediator shall examine the claims, where the actions or inactions serving as a basis thereof have occurred after the entry into force of this Law.

Article 38. Entry into force of the Law

1. This law shall enter into force on the tenth day following its official promulgation, except for the provisions related to carrying out of the official activity by the Financial System Mediator, which shall enter into force in six months following the official promulgation of this Law.
